RETIRING STAFF HONORED

On Friday, 5 May, the Board of Governors held a luncheon at Lister Hall in honor of the members of the University's academic staff who are about to retire from employment at this institution. Invited to the luncheon were Violet Archer, Professor in the Department of Music; Hanna J. Bednarski, Librarian; R. V. Blackmore, Associate Dean of the Faculty of Dentistry; Jaunita Chambers, Professor in the Department of Educational Psychology; Lawrence F.L. Clegg, Professor in the Department of Food Science; Elizabeth L. Empey, Professor of Home Economics; Robert E. Folinsbee, Professor of Geology; Thorlief Fostvedt, Professor in the Department of Mathematics; L.E.S. Gutteridge, Director of the University Press; Mervyn J. Huston, Dean of the Faculty of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences; Konstanty P. Kowaleski, Director of the Surgical-Medical Research Institute; J.G. Krupicka, Associate Professor in the Department of Geology; Maureen E. Martin Administrative Officer in the Secretariat; Edward C. May, Associate Professor in the Department of Classics; Kenneth A. McMurchy, Professor in the Faculty of Dentistry; G. Nettler, Professor of Sociology; W.H.O. Schmidt, Chairman and Professor of Educational Psychology; Wilson N. Stewart, Professor of Botany; C. Suchowersky, Librarian and Associate Professor in the Division of East European Studies; J.A. Toogood, Professor of Soil Science; Sheila R. Toschach, Bacteriologist at the Provincial Laboratory; Maurice Van Vliet, sometime Dean of the Faculty of Physical Education and Recreation and currently President of the 1978 Commonwealth Games Foundation; George Walker, Professor in the Department of Genetics; and D.R. Wilson, Director of the R.F. McLaughlin Examination and Research Centre.

As a small token of the very great debt of gratitude owed to these members of staff by the University community, the President, H.E. Gunning, and the Chairman of the Board of Governors, E.A. Geddes, presented to each person an inscribed silver tray.

At the Retirement Luncheon held on Friday, 5 May, the University honored members of the academic staff who are about to retire. In this photograph Dean Huston of the Faculty of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences is presented with a silver tray by the President of the University, H.E. Gunning, and the Chairman of the Board of Governors, E.A. Geddes.

SUMMER LANDSCAPING PROGRAM

During the spring and summer months, under the general supervision of Blake Pratt of the Campus Development Office, several landscaping projects will be undertaken either to upgrade or to enhance the appearance of certain areas on campus. Of these "hard" (paving) and "soft" (grounds development) projects, undoubtedly the most important will be the provision of fire lanes around the residences of the Lister Hall complex.

These access routes for fire engines and emergency vehicles have been a priority for some time and, now that funding is available for their construction, it is expected that the work will begin in the very near future. It is hoped that the 3.7 m wide asphalt surfaced lanes will be in place by the time of the Commonwealth Games in August when the Lister Hall complex will be used as the "Games Village".

Another perhaps more noticeable project to be undertaken this coming summer is the re-development of 89 Avenue to the west of the junction with 114 Street. At present, this area to the west of the Administration Building between University Hall, the Physical Education and Recreation Centre, and the Students' Union Building is used as a pedestrian mall and has had its appearance enhanced by the placement of trees and shrubs in timber boxes. The mall, however, will be made considerably more attractive by the provision of a smaller paved way to accommodate pedestrians, service, and emergency vehicles. There will be grassy areas also shaded by a canopy of trees. In addition, immediately to the west of the junction of 89 Avenue with 114 Street, a more or less circular plaza is to be constructed and screened by shrubs and trees with benches discretely located around the plaza. At the centre of this plaza will be a fountain which will not only refresh passers-by in the summer months with its cool cascade but, as a work of sculptural art, will also act as a focus for what is, essentially, the main entrance to the University during our gelid northern winter. The whole area will also receive new lighting.

The third major project to be undertaken by the Campus Development Office during the summer will be the upgrading of the sidewalks and landscape at the north end of Pembina Way. Also, at several places on campus, shrubbery screens will be set up to inhibit pedestrians who habitually avoid paved footpaths to save a few seconds in their journeys from one location to another, to the detriment of the lawns.

These projects are a part of the continuing efforts made by the Office of the Vice-President (Planning and Development) and the Campus Development Office to make the University campus more attractive to its users and visitors. It is not expected that they will cause too much disruption or inconvenience to University students, personnel, or visitors during the summer. For further information concerning the projects, please contact Mr. Pratt at the Campus Development Office, 2-15 University Hall, telephone 432-4966.

Continuing English Program

An innovative in-service program for English and language arts teachers will be held at the University from 4 to 14 July. Aided by a ten thousand dollar grant from the Board of Governors and planned jointly by members of the Faculties of Arts, Education, Extension, and the Provincial Department of Education, the Continuing English Program is designed to provide professional development for teachers of all levels.

Sessions will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day, and they will include both lectures and workshops. The approach will be practical and will include the preparation of materials for use in the classroom. At the elementary level, children's writing and literature for children will be among the areas considered, and special attention will be paid to the Revised Elementary Language Arts Program. At the junior high level, special emphasis will be placed on an integrated approach to the language arts and the new Junior High Language Arts Curriculum for Alberta. At the senior high level, the emphasis will be on the teaching of composition.

Guest lecturers will include Bryant Fillion, Associate Professor, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education; Ron Jobe Teacher-Librarian and Learning Resources Consultant for the Edmonton Public School Board; and James Inglis, formerly the Principal Lecturer at Jordanhill College of Education, Glasgow. Instruction will also be provided by Language Arts Consultants from Alberta Education and by teachers in the local school system.

Registration forms and further information about the Program are available from J. Shaw, Faculty of Extension, University of Alberta, Edmonton, T6G 2G4, telephone 432-5047.

Fall Kindergarten Program

The Department of Elementary Education Kindergarten will be accepting applications for their fall program. For further information, telephone Carol Deutscher at 432-4604 between noon and 4:30 p.m. or 437-2882 in the evenings.

Parking Corrigenda

In the schedule of parking rates for 1978-79 published in last week's Folio, it was reported that the daily rate for parking upon entry to the Corbett Hall Parking zone would be 75 cents. The report is inaccurate and should be deleted. Also, special mention of the HUB East parking zone under the rubric Spring and summer terms is no longer valid and should be disregarded.

NON-CREDIT COURSES

ART COURSES

The Edmonton Art Gallery is offering a wide variety of art courses this summer. Drawing, painting, and pottery are among the courses that have been scheduled. Classes will be held at the Edmonton Art Gallery, out-of-doors in Churchill Square, and at the Provincial Museum. Many of the courses have been scheduled for two-week periods in July and August, and others will last for one or two months. There are courses appropriate for most ages. For further information and registration forms contact the Edmonton Art Gallery, telephone 429-6781.

The courses listed below are offered under the auspices of the Faculty of Extension. Registrations may be made and information concerning the instructors and contents of the courses may be acquired at 228 Corbett Hall or by telephoning the number at the end of each listing.

ADULT EDUCATION COURSES

The Centre for the Study of Postsecondary Education will sponsor two adult education courses this spring. Guidelines and Principles for the Teaching of Adults will be offered 30 and 31 May. This workshop will deal with how adults learn best and what constitutes good teaching. The nature of the adult learner and the factors which have a bearing on his desire to learn will also be considered.

Towards Improved Techniques for the Teaching of Adults will be held on 1 and 2 June. This workshop will focus upon new approaches to instructional design and delivery.

Both workshops have been designed for instructors of adults in schools, institutes, colleges, and universities, and for personnel in public and private agencies who have instructional responsibilities.

Fee: $50 per workshop ($80 for both).

Telephone: 432-2217.
